STAT

MEMORANDUM FOR: [redacted]

The Director of Training has brought to my attention the assistance which you recently rendered the Committee on Professional Manpower.

There is no subject of more long-term importance to the Agency than its ability to attract, retain, and employ wisely the talents of the ablest young men and women in America. The Report of the Committee on Professional Manpower forms an exceptionally useful basis for taking the steps necessary to ensure that the quality of our professional corps continues to warrant the fullest respect and confidence of those whom we serve.

Since your efforts assisted in making the Committee's Report a most valuable contribution, I wish to make my appreciation for your service a matter of record.
